

NAME: _____ SCHOOL: _____

Aim: write a poem celebrating West Ham United and England's 1966 World Cup victory.

London Stadium Learning has arranged this free tour of the London Stadium as part of our (Heritage Lottery funded) West Ham United history project called Stadium of Stories. We are also holding a poetry competition and would like you to enter. Use this tour to research and get some great ideas for your poem. The best poem from each school will win a prize. Write up your poem at home or at school.

- Please enjoy the whole tour and remember to do the activity below

Watch the video clip and listen carefully to the audio at stop

* Number 4 Royal East - The Champions outline

* This film and audio tells the story of the 1966 World Cup final and will help you with ideas for your poems and to answer some of the questions below.

What football stadium was the 1966 World Cup final played at?

Who did England play in the 1966 World Cup Final?

What colour kit did England wear?

Can you name the 3 WHUFC players that were in the England team and their positions?

What was the final score? Who scored a hat trick?

Alf Ramsey, the England Manager called Bobby Moore "the spirit and _____ of the team."

What shirt number did Bobby Moore wear at West Ham United?

Watch the video clip and listen carefully to the audio at stop

* Number 7 Home changing rooms - use the shirt cam on Bobby Moore's shirt

* This film and audio will help you with ideas for your poems.

POEM IDEAS – Use this box and the back of this sheet to note down your ideas.

TIP: make rough notes - interesting words and football chants. Try describing using your senses. Can you come up with a metaphor or simile? Think about personification and onomatopoeia.

Describe Moore, Hurst and Peters - hair colour, height, speed, strength in a tackle or goal scoring. How they inspire modern footballers e.g. Moore's retired shirt.
